Othering weaves together the cast and crew's personal experiences during the COVID-19 pandemic with their poignant performance of The Diary of Anne Frank. Through diaries, news stories, social media, and powerful original dialogue, Othering explores the heightened systemic racism and societal challenges that, while not comparable in severity to Anne Frank's world, share some unsettling similarities. This innovative performance fuses video, sound, and projections to create a compelling narrative that reflects humanity's resilience and struggles in 2020 creating a unique and thought-provoking journey that connects past and present in an unforgettable theatrical event.

All SSCCTHEATRE shows are open to community members and students.

Please schedule a time slot at SSCCTheatre.com/auditions whether you're auditioning or volunteering to work crew.

Everyone: Fill out the forms required in this packet.

For your audition: 1. Prepare a one to two minute dramatic monologue.

Memorization is recommended but not required.

For crew: Be present during auditions for an interview with our staff.

Code of Ethics

Part of the great tradition of theatre is a code of ethics which belongs to every worker on the legitimate stage. This code, while tacit, has been observed throughout the centuries and will continue long after us. It is neither superstition, nor dogma, not a statute enforced by law. It is an attitude toward craftsmanship, a respect for associates and a dedication toward the audience. This code outlines a self-discipline which, far from robbing one of individuality, increases personal esteem and dignity through cooperation and a common purpose. The result is perfection which encompasses all that is meant by "Good Theatre."

The show must go on! I will never miss a performance.

I shall play every performance to the best of my ability, regardless of how small my role or large my personal problems.

I shall respect my audience regardless of size or station.

I shall never miss an entrance or cause a curtain to be late by my failure to be ready.

I shall forego all social activities which interfere with rehearsals and will always be on time.

I shall never leave the theatre building or stage area until I have completed my performance.

I shall remember that my aim is to create illusion, therefore, I will not destroy that illusion by appearing in costume and make-up off stage or outside the theatre.

I shall not allow the comments of friends, relatives or critics to change any phase of my work without proper authorization.

I shall not alter lines, business, lights, properties, settings, costumes or any phase of the production without consultation with, and permission from, the director.

I shall accept the director's advice in the spirit in which it is given for s/he sees the production as a whole and my role as a portion thereof.

I shall look upon the production as a collective effort demanding my utmost cooperation, hence I will forego the gratification of ego for the demands of the play.

I shall be patient and avoid temperamental outbursts, for they create tension and serve no useful purpose.

I shall respect the play and the playwright, remembering that "A work of art is not a work of art until it is finished."

I shall never blame my co-workers for my own failure.

I shall never engage in caustic criticism of another artist's work from jealousy or an urge to increase my own prestige.

I shall inspire the public to respect me and my craft through graciousness in accepting both praise and constructive criticism.

I shall use stage properties and costumes with care, knowing they are tools of my craft and a vital part of the production.

I shall observe backstage courtesy and shall comport myself in strict compliance with rules of the theatre in which I work.

I shall never lose my enthusiasm for the theatre because of disappointment or failure for they are the lessons by which I learn.

I shall direct my efforts in such a manner that when I leave the theatre it will stand as a greater institution for my having labored there.
